

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

GRACE SCHOOLS and BIOLA
UNIVERSITY, INC.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ALEX M. AZAR II, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 3:12-cv-459

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION & DECLARATORY RELIEF

Plaintiffs, Grace Schools and Biola University, Inc., have moved for a permanent injunction and declaratory relief against federal regulations that required them to offer coverage of contraceptive services (“the Mandate”) or to comply with an accommodation process whereby their employees would receive coverage through Plaintiffs’ health insurance issuer or third party administrator. See ECF No. 110. Although the Government does not agree with all of the statements and arguments in Plaintiffs’ motion for permanent injunction, the Government is not raising a substantive defense of the Mandate or the accommodation process with respect to Plaintiffs’ Religious Freedom Restoration Act (“RFRA”) challenge. The Government has concluded that requiring employers with sincerely held religious objections to comply with the Mandate or the accommodation process would violate RFRA.

The Government takes no position on whether permanent injunctive relief is appropriate in this case. The injunctions in Pennsylvania v. Trump, No. 2:17-cv-04540-WB, ECF No. 60 (E.D. Pa.), and California v. Department of Health and Human Services, No. 4:17-cv-05783-HSG, ECF No. 105 (N.D. Cal.), do not purport to interfere with this case or other existing litigation challenging the prior rules. See Opinion at 43, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. Trump et al., No. 17-4540 (E.D. Pa. Dec. 15, 2017) (“A preliminary injunction will maintain the status quo: those with exemptions or accommodations prior to October 6, 2017 will maintain their status, those with injunctions preventing enforcement of the Contraceptive Mandate will maintain their injunctions, but those with coverage will maintain their coverage as well.”); Order Granting Plaintiffs’ Motion for A Preliminary Injunction at 29, California et al. v. Hargan et al., No. 17-05783 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 21, 2017) (“This nationwide injunction does not conflict with the plaintiff-specific injunctions issued by the courts in the Zubik cases or any other case.”). The Government notes, however, that any injunction should be limited to the contraceptive coverage services to which Plaintiffs have religious objections and should be narrowly tailored to enjoin enforcement against Plaintiffs and their insurers and third-party administrators, as their conduct relates to Plaintiffs’ health plans.
